JOHN H. GLINES, School Treasurer for 1905.

I have examined the accounts of the School Board and Treasurer and find them correctly cast and properly vouched for.

RICHARD J. QUINN, Auditor.

REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

Another school year brings us to the report expected from us. It is not an irksome task by any means, when we see such good thorough work as has been accomplished in our several schools the past year. Eight of our teachers have been high school graduates, bright, energetic young ladies, up-to-date in their methods, and all have been faithful and painstaking. We considered that they all "earned their money,"

The Pine Grove school had three teachers for the year. Miss Allard, a graduate of Island Pond, Vt., high school, finished two years teaching at the spring term. Fall term by Mrs. Elizabeth Kennett a veteran in the work, and winter term by Miss Lilla Libbey. Three pupils of this school are attending high school at Whitefield—Charlie Baldie, Lillian Baldie and Martha Damon.

Cherry Mountain School was taught first half of spring term by Miss C. C. Paul, a graduate of Concord, N. H., high school; second half by Mrs. Elizabeth Kennett; fall and winter terms by Miss Isabel Woodard, a graduate of Groveton high school. Miss Ethel Hudson, a pupil of this district, is in her second year at Whitefield high school.

The Applebee school was taught spring term by Miss Ella F. Leavitt, of this town, her second term there; fall term by Miss Lila Libbey. At the winter term the pupils, then but two in number, were carried to the graded school at Jefferson Meadows.

The Town House school spring term was taught by Miss Gertrude Hickey, a graduate of Groveton high school. That completed her two years service in this school. The fall and winter terms were taught by Miss Claire F. Hickey, a graduate of the same high school. Miss Effie Howe, of this school district is in her second year at Whitefield high school, and Miss Mamie Whalen the same in Littleton high school.

The Fabyan school was taught spring term by Miss Pearl Davis, a graduate of Island Pond, Vt., high school; the fall and winter terms by Miss Emma Mozrall, a graduate of Littleton high school.

The Twin Mountain Grammar first and third terms by Miss Jennie O'Connell; fall term by Miss Allard. John Kelley of this room is attending high school at Littleton; others will soon be ready. The Twin Mountain Primary was taught through the entire year by Miss Florence A. Hickey, a graduate of Groveton high school, and who thus completes three years service in this room.

Patriotic and temperance instruction was not quite up to the mark of last year. Much attention was bestowed upon mathematics and spelling, and the supplementary reading every afternoon in Miss Mozrall's room was of much interest. The extreme neatness and order of some of the rooms was very noticeable. Special mention might be made of the Applebee and Pine Grove rooms.

Pupils on the Roll of Perfect Attendance for one term only, are John Kelly, James Kelley, Clarence Brown, Ida Southam, Leonira Burrows, Aurelie Straw, Eddie O'Claire, Martha Damon, Sadie Ingerson, Anna Hunt, Bertha Morgan, Earl Brill, Edith Lindsey, Agnes Monahan, George Monahan, William Nichols, Fred Monahan, Madeline Armstrong, Jennetta Quinn, Agnes King, Ellen McCann, Joseph O'Donnell, John McGee, Herbert McGee, Charles McGee, Teresa Cate, John Burrows, Richard Fahey; for two terms, Edna Haynes, Ardelle Wescomb, Arthur Heath, Forrest Heath, Burton Wynn, Ernest Ingerson, Hazel Hunt, Stella Houghton, Annie Fahey, Linwood Hallett, Harry Houghton; for the entire year, Clayton Straw, Mabel Williams and Winnifred Burns.

Again we would urge parents to visit the schools. Go unexpectedly or otherwise and see for yourselves how your children are progressing. Surely they are dearer to you than your housework, your stores or farms. Perfection is seldom found in teachers, pupils, parents or school-boards, but all together can help to make our public schools what they are meant to be, "the foundation of good government."

Respectfully submitted,
